

Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC)

SIPC is an important part of the overall system of investor protection in the United States. While a number of federal, self-regulatory and state securities agencies deal with cases of investment fraud, SIPC's focus is both different and narrow: Restoring funds to investors with assets in the hands of bankrupt and otherwise financially troubled brokerage firms. The Securities Investor Protection Corporation was not chartered by Congress to combat fraud.

You may obtain more information about the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) coverage on your brokerage account and gain access to their Brochure by contacting SIPC or by visiting their website.
